- Evan started CUNY Queens College in 2016 and is majoring in applied mathematics with a computer science minor.
- He has been committed to the pre-med track since Spring 2018 and plans on applying to medical school in the summer of 2020.
- With complete dedication to his studies, Evan has been on the Dean's List for Academic Excellence throughout his college career.
- Evan began his scientific research in the summer of 2019 when he joined the New York Medical College research program where he studied the effect of induced autism spectrum disorder subconvulsants on postnatal juvenile rats.
- Away from school and research, Evan values his time as an ER volunteer at NYU Winthrop Hospital, and enjoys doing community service with New York Cares and the Long Island Chapter of the American Red Cross.
- Evan loves New York sports and is a big fan of the New York Knicks, New York Jets, and New York Yankees.
